If no practice note is timeously received, the matter shall automatically be removed. The Judge shall exercise a discretion whether or not to hear a matter not uploaded on CaseLines.

36. All matters shall remain on the roll (as revised) and shall, at the discretion of the Judge, be disposed of as deemed appropriate to the circumstances. In addition:

- 37.6. A Respondent who appears in person and who goes to the Court building shall make his or her presence and intention known to the Registrar, and a notice to this effect shall be placed on the Foyer notices board, indicating the Court Official who is to be approached. JUDICIAL CASE MANAGEMENT MEETINGS (PRETORIA)
CASE CONFERENCES COURT (JOHANNESBURG)

38. These directives apply to all matters for the rest of Term 2 of 2020.

39. The Directive of 25 March 2020 concerning the automatic re-enrolment of these matters is hereby revoked. The new dates are set out hereunder, save for those matters in Johannesburg which were re-enrolled to 28, 29 and 30 April 2020. Paragraph 39.2 below provides the manner of disposal of these matters:

27 March to 6 May

30 March to 7 May

31 March to 8 May

1 April to 11 May

2 April to 12 May

3 April to 13 May

6 April to 14 May

7 April to 15 May

8 April to 18 May

9 April to 19 May

14 April to 20 May

15 April to 21 May

16 April to 22 May

17 April to 25 May

39.1 In Pretoria all matters enrolled from 22 April to 30 April 2020 have been removed from the roll and allocated alternative dates from 6 May 2020. Parties involved in those matters will be notified of such dates. Matters that were enrolled for 20 and 21 April 2020, which were removed or could not be dealt with due to the absence of the parties or for any other reason attributable to the lockdown, will also be allocated alternative dates from 4 May 2020 and the parties will be notified of those dates.

39.2 In Johannesburg all matters postponed to 28, 29 and 30 April shall retain those dates and dealt with by the Judges to whom they have been allocated. In the event that any of these matters are removed for any reason related to the lockdown, the Parties are to request a new enrolment date from the Registrar.

40. The name of the Judge allocated to hear specific cases and an email address as stipulated by that Judge shall be published to the Legal Profession by the Registrar. Thereafter, all communication between the Parties and the Judge shall take place by email or as otherwise directed by that Judge.

41. Upon receipt of the files, whether in physical form or on CaseLines, the Judge who is allocated to hear the matters shall exercise a discretion as to the manner in which the matters shall be dealt with, which may include one or more of the following options:

41.1. Publish a schedule of times during the day at intervals as determined at the Judge's discretion, at which a video-conference shall be convened; in which case, the Plaintiff shall be responsible to set up a video-conference meeting on zoom, or on any other platform as directed by the Judge, for the stipulated time, host it, and send a link to the Judge and the Defendant.

41.2. Publish a list of times at which the Judge proposes to convene a video conference which the Judge shall host and shall send a link to the email addresses of the Counsel for each Party. Counsel must hold themselves ready to join such meetings at the stipulated time or as soon thereafter as the meeting may be convened.

41.3. After the period of Lockdown has ended, and subject to any regulations or Ministerial directions which inhibit free movement of persons, where appropriate, direct that the matters shall be heard in a physical Court room, in which case the matters may be staggered throughout the day to reduce exposure to physical contact among persons.

41.4. Any other procedure that, at the discretion of the Judge, is deemed appropriate.

41.4.1. In addition, when a matter is not ripe for disposal because of the dislocations caused by the lockdown to the necessary preparation of the matter or the briefing of Counsel:

41.4.1.1. the parties may remove the matter from the roll by notice;

41.4.1.2. or the Judge seized of the matter may mero motu remove it from the roll.

41.4.2. In such a case the matter may be re-enrolled, without any adverse costs consequences, on application to the Registrar, stating the reason for the removal.

41.4.3. Upon receipt of such a case, the Registrar shall enrol the matter on a date in the week after the application to re-enroll the matter is made.

42. Furthermore, in matters where the parties have been unable to engage substantively about the matter and for that reason the Judicial Case Management Meeting/case management conference cannot be effectively conducted, the matters shall be removed from the roll, subject to the following:

42.1. In Pretoria, the re-enrolment of the matter shall take place on the initiative of the parties on five days' notice, whereupon the Registrar shall accommodate as early a set-down as is feasible.

42.2. In Johannesburg, the "45 day requirement" for an application for a Case Management Conference shall be relaxed where such a case management conference has been removed from the roll under these circumstances.

42.3. However, if the re-enrolled Case Management Conference cannot take place before the trial date, that trial date shall axiomatically be forfeited. In a case where, for this reason, a trial date has been forfeited, the Registrar shall accommodate the parties with a new trial date at the earliest time available. (At the present time, a new date on three months' notice can be expected to be allocated)

43. The Plaintiff remains dominus litis and is responsible for ensuring the efficient disposal of the matter.
44. It is not a pre requisite for matters in this category to be uploaded on CaseLines to enjoy judicial attention.
